WHAT IS THE COST?

The cost of participating in a DCI-affiliated corps varies group-to-group. For World Class participation like The Troopers, the costs are likely higher than those of an Open Class corps, mainly due to a more extensive travel schedule. Regardless, each corps independently sets its own tuition and fee schedule. Drum Corps International has no role in determining or regulating the tuition and fees corps charge.

The basic cost of participating in a DCI drum corps is the annual tuition. The corps often calls this a "tour fee" or "dues." In keeping with the educational component of Drum Corps International's mission, the annual fee the students pay the corps is referred to as tuition. The tuition amount covers instruments, equipment, uniforms, instruction, facility rental as well as transportation, food and housing during the tours.

Considering the cost of a two- or three-day travel trip with a high school marching band to perform at a national parade, or a two week-long summer sports camp can run upward of $1,500 or more, keep in mind that tuition with your son or daughter's drum corps will include travel, food and housing over the course of more than 60 days during the summer!

What is the Audition Weekend like?

The full weekend audition experience is a great insight into what the Troopers are like day to day in camps and on tour. Throughout the weekend you will experience first-hand instruction in a true Troopers' rehearsal setting. You will get world class instruction from an incredible staff as well as perform alongside returning veterans of the drum corps.

Within this weekend, the instructional and administrative staff have three goals:

- 1) We want to give you specific instruction on how to be a better player, marcher and performer.
- 2) We not only want to audition for potential Troopers, but we also want to start to prepare potential members for the summer tour experience for the 2012 season and beyond.
- 3) We want you to have a blast!

What is the audition process like?

The audition process for the Percussion section includes demonstration of your playing and marching abilities. In order to be prepared for the music portion of your audition, please complete the following steps:

1. Go to the website, www.tapspace.com,
2. Order one of the following: the Trooperpercussion book (all inclusive percussion material) OR the Trooperpercussion 2011 downloadable audition packet of the specific section you wish to audition for.
3. Read the material in the book and/or packet and learn as much of the music as possible. Memorization of the material is definitely beneficial, but not required for the first camp.

How will I know if I make the corps?

By the end of the audition date/weekend you will have one of the three following statuses:

Accepted: Congratulations! You are a fully contracted member of the 2012 horn line.

Call back: You have shown us some of the needed skills necessary to earn a spot, but we want to see improvement in one or more skill areas before we can feel comfortable with giving you a contract.

Not Accepted: We are sorry, but at this point we did not enough of the necessary skill sets demonstrated and we cannot offer you a contract for the 2012 season.

 Those that are offered contracts for the group are required to attend ALL montly camps until move-ins. School conflicts and band performances will be worked out on an individual basis.

YOU HAVE TO ATTEND MONTHLY CAMPS FOR THE STAFF TO EFFECTIVELY EVALUATE YOUR PROGRESS MONTH TO MONTH.

Frequently Asked Questions

I'm not too sure that I'll make the corps, but should I audition anyway?

Absolutely! You never know for sure until you try and even if you are not yet ready for membership you will learn a great deal which will help you in your current performance situation and in future auditions. Do not be afraid of auditioning! If you think you can or you think you can't, you are right!

Also talent is not the only basis on which we accept members. Attitude, desire to be the best and ability to attend camps are three of the biggest determining factors of becoming a member of the Troopers.

I can't attend any (or most) camps. Can I still march with the Troopers?

No. Why? As this drum corps only meets once a month, it is imperative that all our members are available as much as possible. Your availability for camps will determine our consideration of you as a member.

I cannot attend any of the audition weekends. What are my options?

You can send a video audition via YouTube video. Please note that no contracts will be given until we can continue your audition process in person. Preference will be given to in person auditions. The video can include exercises from our book (mentioned above) and/or exercises, cadences, solos, etc of your own!

Please email your video audition to Percussion Caption Supervisor Kevin Welborn, k.welborn@troopersdrumcorps.org

I cannot attend some camps due to school conflicts. What are my options?

Since most of us are certified teachers, it is our policy that school always comes first. However, your effort and ability to work out your school conflicts so that you can attend camps will also be a focus for us in considering you for membership. Camp conflicts are handled on a case by case basis. There are some conflicts that we deem not appropriate to miss a camp for. Work, studying for finals, school vacations etc. are not appropriate reasons to miss a camp.

How do people pay for a summer with the Troopers?

The summer tuition is $2400 payable in twelve monthly installments from December 31st 2011-December 31st 2012. With the increasing prices of food & fuel, it does cost quite a bit to operate an organization like the Troopers. Believe it or not, member tuition fees account for only about 1/3 of the total cost to run the corps! The rest comes from donations, corporate sponsorships, and other fundraising projects within the Troopers. Members have a few fundraising opportunities through the corps, and will be supplied with literature and advice on finding personal sponsors to assist with tuition fees. Many of the Troopers' members have paid for their ENTIRE fee through hard work and great fundraising...where there's a will, there's a way! If you are set on marching drum corps- start saving now!!

Can I get a sponsorship?

Sponsorships are available on a very limited basis through the boosters' organization. Applications to apply are made available to contracted members only. If you feel that the only way you can march is through donations/sponsorships, please look into our fundraising opportunities. Raising the money to do this activity might be some extra work for you, but in the end the reward is priceless.

Are there physical requirements for the Troopers?

As this is physically demanding activity, we are looking for members that have chosen to live a healthy life style and are physically fit. This is usually taken a look at on a case by case basis. Additionally, any prior injuries/surgeries (torn tendons/ligaments, knee surgeries, etc.) will need to be reviewed and approved by a physician and accompanied with your physical forms. Additionally, we highly recommend that you start a physical training regimen as you start planning and practicing for your audition. The more physically fit you are, the better you will audition and perform.
